

CINDI'S SIN CITY

With Cindi on the Commission, the City decided to save money by jeopardizing public safety — it cut the number of working police officers. The result: Crime went up — particularly in Hutchinson's area. Since 2002, all serious crimes are up 19% in The Cindi Zone.

— Cal Deal

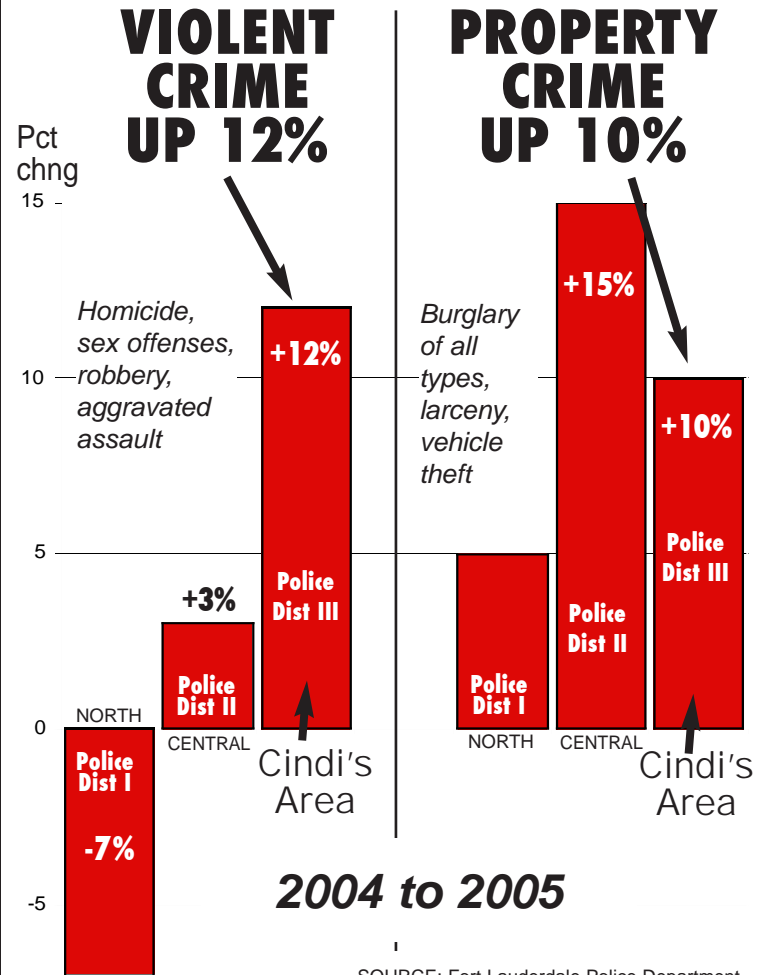

"Because of these budget cuts, coverage was reduced, response time to calls increased dramatically, and we closed the jail. Guess what? Crime went up! This isn't rocket science, folks."

— FORMER POLICE CHIEF JOE GERWENS, 8/3/05

Cindi's area has city's biggest violent crime hike!
